NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Saints,

As we walk together into the last quarter of the year, I am very grateful for how God continues to lead and guide us. This month we will begin a new study in the book of Ruth. The small Old Testament narrative has so much richness to teach us about who God is and what he's like. I would encourage you to come and hear so that God may continue to shape us into people for his own possession.

We will also welcome new members this month and celebrate our 20th anniversary the last Sunday of October. Please make plans to be here that weekend and celebrate with us as we have dinner on the grounds. I look forward to the next series and to what God has in store for us in October.

For His Glory,
Pastor Dinkins

WEDNESDAY CONNECT

We are excited to begin a monthly mid-week refresher for the Chapin Presbyterian family to reconnect and recharge with food, friends, and fellowship. Join us on p.m. for a meal provided by the church, followed by a brief vision of "Wednesday Connect" from Pastor Scott. An optional donation basket will be available to help offset costs. Please reserve your spot for dinner so we know how much to prepare. Use the following link to RSVP: <https://bit.ly/WedConnectOct>

Volunteers are needed to serve on cooking teams. Please contact Jim Cain if you would like to volunteer.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

"This is the day the Lord has made and we will rejoice and give thanks!" (Psalm 118:24) And this is the church the Lord has made and we rejoice and give thanks for it too! We come together in the name of the Lord Jesus, each Sunday morning, and are a blessing to each other and to many others ... what a sweet church family you are.

We will be welcoming many new members to our church family in the coming weeks and how blessed we are to have them become a part of this family who the Lord has brought together. Please make sure that you welcome each of them.

For the many new visitors and members to the family please let me explain something. When you come in, you'll see the name tag table. The name tags serve a dual purpose, to help everybody to know everyone else better (we may not all love name tags, but we all need them). Also, the name tags are our way of taking the church attendance. Now I know the most important thing is that the Lord indeed knows you are present but within the world of church, it is important also for us to know of your presence.

Love to each of you,
Helen
